Treasurer Lacy Restored Health, But is Urged to Remain Longer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALLEGH, N. C., March 28.—State Treasurer B. R. Lacy was to return to Raleigh from Arizona April 1st, but at urgent request of Governor Glenn and the other State officials, he will remain there until April 15th or later. His asthma trouble, for the relief of which his trip to Arizona was necessitated, is very greatly relieved. In fact, it does not trouble him at all. However, it is feared that a return to Raleigh with the present weather conditions would bring present weather conditions would bring it on again.

Governor Glenn left last night for a trip into the Western part of the State, to return to Raleigh Friday. He will address the farmers of Cabarrus county at Concord, and will also speak at Newton while away. ton while away.

The Woman's Club, of Raleigh, is arranging to hold a big skating carnival in the tobacco warchouse one evening during Easter week, the date to be decided later. The skuters will go in costume, and the purpose is to make it an event of unusual interest, the purpose to be the raising of money for the Sir Walter Raleigh monument, to be creeted in this city. The woman's clubs the State over have been enlisted in the work of raising money for the monument, and quite a creditable sum has been contributed by the public school children of the State.

The Supreme Court last evening delivered opinions in eight appeals, all of them being from countles in the southeastern section of the State. Of the eight, the findings of the lower courts are affirmed in five, and three new trials are granted. tobacco warehouse one evening findings of the lower courts are affirmed in five, and three now trials are granted. It is a noticeable fact that a much larger per cent, of the cases coming up on appeal before this term of the Supreme Court have the findings of the lower courts affirmed than has been the case in a great while, if ever before, The following are the opinions just delivered:

Bullard vs. Hollingsworth, Cumberland, affirmed.

Mayers vs. McRimmon, Robeson, new Bland vs. Beasley, Pender, new trial, Smith vs. French, Craven, new trial in both appeals.

Porter vs. Telegraph Company, Columbus, per cuirlam, affirmed.
The Industrial Club, of Raleigh, has passed a resolution to join with the Chamber of Commerce, the Woman's Club, the trustees of Rox Hospital and the Raleigh Medical Association in a movement for providing Raleigh with a thoroughly up-lo-date and adequate hospital for white people, At present Raleigh, has more than twice the equipment for treating hegro patients than for white. The plan is to do away with the negro department is to do away with for waite. The plan is to do away with the negro department of Rex Hospital and spend something like $100,000 in new buildings and equipment. There is every indication that this will be done within the next two years, at worst.

of all discussions was an arriest dissire that the differences of the past, which were settled more than forty years ago, shall be forgotten in the unity of the future.

The morning session was devoted mainty to addresses of welcome by Governor
Joseph M. Terrell, and Mayor James Woodward, for the State and city, respectively, and responses by General Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina, chairman of the National Committee, and others.

The afternoon was given to addresses,
the principal one being that of Corporal Tanner, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was greeted to-day with cheers. He spoke in a reminiscent way, illustrating many points with ancedotes of war experiences, which brought applause from the veterans of rought applause from the veterans North and South.

Other addresses were made by Colonel A. M. Clark, of North Carolina, and Cap-tain John C. Brian, who commanded sev-eral vesses! in the Confederate service

NEW YORK SUN'S EDITORIAL ON MAYOR

Kind Words and a True Appreciation of Richmond's Mayor From Great Daily.

Ation of Richmond's Mayor
From Great Daily.

The New York Sin of vesterday contained a letter from Mayor McCarthy, of Richmond, regarding his "lag" speech, and the appended editorial, which will be gratifying to the Mayor's friends:

MAYOR AND FLAG.

In a letter which the Sun prints to-day, Mayor Carlton McCarthy, of Richmond, explains the deplorable circumstances that twisted an eminently proper and oreditable public speech delivered by him into an apparent declaration of hostility to the American ling and the national government for which it stands. It is unfortunate that errors of reporting should have put Mr. McCarthy in a falso light, but his disclaimer is so good natured, so wholesome in its tone and so frank and engaging, that it will completely re-establish his fame as an intelligent, progressive and pritrictic citizen. No permanent injury will be done to his reputation as a modern citizen by the incorrect summary of his speech that was made public last week.

From Mr. McCarthy's letter it is evident that he is one who, while treasuring in heart and mind the memories of the past, with its herole hopes and unfailled ambitions, lives for the Southland of the present, working and planning for the rich future, with its promise of plenty and peace. It is the men of his stamp that are building up the new South-the South of diversified industrial activities, of great commercial accomplishment, and of unfaltering devotion to the national welfare.

To Mayor McCarthy The Sun offers its most respectful saintations. Long may be continue to teach the lessons of sound Americanism, good humor and enterprise to his fellow-citizens in Richmond, in Virginia and, in the United States of America, under the protecting and inspiring bauner of the Stars and Stripes, to show the honest character of the work done by the defendants in Savannah harbor. Excellent progress was made and it is said that this week the introduction of evidence may be concluded.

The witness not accessible and whose testimony was read was Frederick Crisp, son of the late Speaker Crisp, son of the House of Representatives, who is now son of the late Speaker Crisp., of the House of Representatives, who is now in Pannina. The court overruled the objection of the government's counsel to the testimony. Crisp's evidence related to the character of the work done by testimony. Crisp's evidence refatted to the character of the work done by Greene and Gaynor, which he had seen as an inspector. He dened that the mattresses were full of holes.

William H. Flagg, of New York, has been sought by officers of the Federal service for two months. The defense submitted a physician's certificate to the effect that Flagg's condition was such as to preclude his coming to Savannah to festify. The court refused to admit the testimony of Flagg, holding that the witness had been evading service and that his present whereabouts were not even known.

"This is a very suspicious looking showing," said Judge Speer, explaining that he had no reference to counsel for the defense, but to Mr. Flagg.
